

ARLEY & ALICE FORSTER LECK HOUSE

Arley Leck married Alice Forster, great-granddaughter of Don Juan Forster, in 1917. Alice's parents, Frank & Ada Forster, owned much of the land on a hill overlooking the Forster Mansion. Leck's mother inherited the land to the west and he moved away, all but the house.

In 2003, a portion of the tract of the house was added to the Historical Landmarks. The house is one of the City's
